

Guidelines for Topical Discussions

TD2.1. Cultural Connections: Walking, Identity, and Urban Revitalisation

14:00 - 15:30 Tuesday, 7th October, 2025 | Location: Green cube

Walking is deeply connected to culture, heritage, and identity, and this session explores how these dimensions can shape more liveable communities. From reactivating historic paths and drawing on cultural traditions, to transforming disruptive urban challenges like graffiti and noise into opportunities for walking, the discussions highlight how place-based strategies can foster community pride and economic vitality. Tactical urbanism and heritage-led revitalisation further demonstrate the power of walking to connect people, strengthen identity, and reimagine public spaces, with speakers from Portugal, Kenya, Colombia, and Albania.
